

almost Delia.

I am in a hurry
so excuse this blank paper, please.

Merrill,

Spring of 1875

Viles Number

Dear Willie

Annie does not think it necessary to give you any advice as to closing up your affairs there, but I see no harm in it and think it quite likely you would like some hints.
You can see at once that it would not be proper for you to come away and leave your belongings in Mrs. Sill's care.

Papa says it will not be convenient for him to go down and pack up for you and says tell you to have Henry come up, and pack your baxed for you. He supposes you have plenty of empty baxed there and that you will need help in packing.

See that Henry packs cans etc, carefully so they will not break. If he does not know it you can suggest to him that by dampening the strand a little he can pack much more securely anything liable to break.

Your clothes you will have to get Henry to take down to the station for you, but if you can put the other baxed away where they will not at all in case made Mrs. S. you had best leave at Peppa says he can send down for them some time Let Joe take the team down. Of course you will let us know in time what day and what train you will come so that we can meet you.

Please say to Mr. and Mrs.
Sill that we expect a visit from them and would be happy to have them fix the time to suit themselves.

We shall be very glad to have you at home once more.

Delia Hiltner and Carrie Brier went down to be examined and failed utterly. I don't think it will hurt Carrie at all but I am very sorry
